

^{H-12}
Caldwell dies in Chelsea ^{MAY 15}
₁₉₇₈

HAROLD

Pauline M. Caldwell, 62, of Chelsea, Iowa, died Tuesday, May 2, after a short illness. Funeral services for Pauline Caldwell were held May 5 at Hrabak Funeral Home in Chelsea, with the Rev. Clyde King, pastor of the United Methodist Church of Chelsea officiating. Burial was in the Rector Cemetery. Music was provided by Mrs. John Kaloupek.

Pallbearers were Harold Kent, Marvin Waline, Ludy Sheda, Richard Van De Walle, Earnest Meyer, and Lyle Vesely. The daughter of William and Josephine Husted, Mrs. Caldwell was born Oct. 5, 1915, in Marengo. She spent her early life in Marengo, and most of her adult life in Grinnell. On Feb. 2, 1942, she married Harold Caldwell.

She moved to Chelsea seven years ago. Surviving her are her husband; her children, Delmar of Milipitas, Calif., Keith of Brooklyn, Iowa, Mervin of Lakehills, Tex., Dorothy of North Hollywood, Calif., and Marilyn of Albuquerque, N.M., ten grandchildren; and two sisters, Emma Eisher of Victor and Helen Thompson of Wichita Falls, Tex. She was preceded in death by her parents and two sisters, Mildred and Ruth, and one daughter, Francis.