

Dale O. Campbell

Dale O. Campbell, 69, Fort Lauderdale, Fla., formerly of Gilman, died Thursday, Jan. 20, at his home of a heart attack.

Memorial services were held Monday, Jan. 24, at the Fort Lauderdale American Legion Hall with entombment in Forest Meadows Mausoleum, Gainesville, Fla.

The son of Frank and Olava Madland Campbell, he was born June 30, 1924, in Gilman where he was raised and received his education. He enlisted in the United States Navy during World War II and served on the U.S.S. Guadalcanal in the European Theater. Following his discharge, he worked as a carpenter in the Gilman area.

He was married to Evelyn Magon June 12, 1954, in Michigan City, Ind. The couple made their home in Fort Lauderdale where he also worked as a carpenter. He was a member of the Overland Park, Fla., American Legion Post #222 and a former member of the Grinnell Eagles Lodge.

He is survived by four daughters, Lory Griffin, Charlotte, N.C.; Sherry Baer, St. Augustine, Fla.; Nancy Cherry, Saugus, Mass., and Sally Campbell, Newport Beach, Calif; two stepdaughters, Kathy Britton, Las Vegas, Nevada, and Jennie Kinney, St. Augustine, Fla., two sisters, Marie Petersen, Gilman, and Irene Edgeton, Grinnell; one brother, Delbert Campbell, Scottsdale, Ariz.; six grandchildren and one step grandchild. He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, and two brothers, Charlie and Dick Campbell.

H-R January 24, 1994