Conduct Services Here Today For Laura Campbell

Funeral services were held this afternoon (Monday) at the James-Schalinske Funeral Home for Mrs. Laura A. Campbell of Grinnell.

Mrs. Campbell died Friday at a local nursing home following several years of illness.

Officiating at the service was the Rev. Wayne Shireman, pastor of the First Baptist church. Vocal music was provided by Mrs. Louis Fuller and Mrs. Harlan Dare, accompanied by Mrs. Kathleen Heffner at the organ. Pallbearers were Raymond Harris, Merle Harris, Harvey Harris, Russell Sears, Roger Sears and Farrell Siehl.

Interment was in Chester cemetery.

Born in Audubon county, Iowa, on Nov. 3rd, 1879, she was the daughter of William F. Tice and Sarah May Johnson Tice. When a child of two years, she moved to Muscatine county to the old Tice homestead on the Cedar River.

When she was 12, her mother passed away and she took over as the mother of the family until her father remarried. Later, they moved to Poweshiek county where she completed her education and became a teacher in the rural schools. She remained a resident of Poweshiek county until the time of her death.

On Mar. 28th, 1902, she was united in marriage with Joe Campbell. They lived for many years in Chester township until moving to Grinnell in 1947.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell had no family of their own but took into their home three children, Lenore Tice Brubaker, Linden and Louis Tice, whom they loved, educated and aided as their own. They also cared for Laura May Foster Miller and Arthur Foster for a time.

Her parents, husband, and two brothers preceded her in death.

She is survived by one sister, Mrs. J. E. Foster of Grinnell and one brother, Lee Tice of Kansas City, Kan., and many nieces and nephews.
