

Boyd Carnahan services held

H.R. August 25, 1986
Boyd I. Carnahan, 66, of San Antonio, Texas, a former resident of Jasper County, died recently at the Wilford Hall Medical Center in San Antonio.

Funeral services were conducted on Aug. 13, with burial in the Fort Sam Houston National Cemetery.

The son of Jess and Hazel Irish Carnahan, he was born on June 10, 1920, in Taintor. He graduated from Newton High School in 1938 and attended Iowa State University where he studied chemical engineering.

Mr. Carnahan was a 20-year veteran of the U.S. Air Force, retiring as a master sergeant. He served in the South Pacific during World War II, in Japan during the Korean conflict, and in West Germany. He was a recipient of the Air Medal and the Distinguished Flying Cross.

Survivors include his wife, Harriett; one son, Michael of San Antonio; one daughter, Karen Norman of Arlington, Texas; his stepmother, Marie Carnahan of Newton; nine grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; four brothers, Frank of Hudson, Paul and Charles of Grinnell and Dwight of Camdentown, Mo.; and two sisters, Doris Vander Werff of Sully and Nina Farland of Cedar Rapids.

He was preceded in death by his parents.