

Beryl Carter services held

Beryl Carter, 73, of 1115 Reed St., Grinnell, died early Friday at Grinnell General Hospital. Graveside services for Mrs. Carter were held at 3 p.m. Saturday at the Victor I.O.O.F. Cemetery, with the Rev. Hugh A. Shiveley, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating. Honorary pallbearers were Jerry Carter, Fred Grandstaff, Earl Jensen, Fred Schmidt, Lester Tharp, and Gordon VanDonselaar.

Friends may call the Smith Funeral Home for additional information.

The daughter of William H. and Hattie M. Faircloth Benson, she was born July 30, 1904, at Kellogg. She attended the Kellogg schools.

On Aug. 22, 1925, she was married to Roy L. Carter in Grinnell. The couple continued to live here since their marriage.

Mrs. Carter was a member of the First Baptist Church, the Isabella Brande Guild, the Grandmothers Club, the D.U.V., and the Helping Hands Club. She had been a cook at St. Francis Hospital and Grinnell General Hospital.

Survivors include her daughter, Mrs. Vivian Ellis of Grinnell; two grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; and two sisters, Mrs. Blanche Olson and Mrs. Laurine Olson, both of Grinnell.

She was preceded in death by her parents and her husband, Roy, in 1966.