

Bruce Allan Chase

Bruce Allan Chase, 44, of Deep River, died at his home Nov. 20, 1999.

Services for Mr. Chase were Nov. 24 in Montezuma and Nov. 26 in Fort Dodge.

Mr. Chase's funeral on Nov. 24 was at Watts Funeral Home in Montezuma. Pastor Paul Septer of Faith Christian Center officiated. Accompanied by organist Kathleen Ramsey, soloist Tammy Binkley sang, "It is No Secret" and "Safe in The Arms of Jesus."

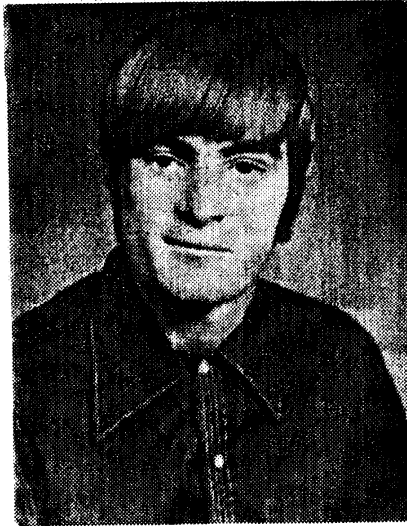

Another service for Mr. Chase was Nov. 26 at Laufersweiler-Sievers Funeral Home in Fort Dodge. Officiating was the Rev. David Rotolo of New Covenant Christian Church.

Soloist Angela Binkley sang "Amazing Grace."

Casket bearers were Lauren Nieman, Terry Hines, Kevin Powell, Nathan Chase, Troy Binkley and Justin Wood. Honorary casket bearers were Kory Stockdale, Jesi Wilson, Christopher Wilson, Billy Dillingham and John Hollister. Interment was in Memorial Park Cemetery in Fort Dodge.

Mr. Chase was born April 21, 1955 in Fort Dodge to Lowell and Leola (Crandall) Chase. He attended elementary and secondary school in Fort Dodge and graduated from high school in that city in 1973. On Oct. 29, 1978, he married Rebecca Lynn Wolfe. They divorced in May 1989. He moved to Deep River 10 years ago.

Mr. Chase was preceded in death by his father, Lowell LeRoy Chase on Jan. 1, 1974; a brother, William Leslie Chase on Aug. 1, 1943; his grandparents, William and Ruth (Hart) Chase and Theresa (Kahout) Crandall and Sarah Elizabeth (Thompson) Crandall.

Bruce Chase

Surviving are his mother, Leola Riley of Montezuma; three brothers, James Chase of Otho, Kenneth Chase of Cambridge and Rick Chase of Duncombe; three sisters, Gayle Wilson of Somers, Ruth Ewing of Deep River and Twila Benson of Union Mills; several aunts and uncles, 24 nieces and nephews, 60 great-nieces and nephews, other relatives and many friends.

MR December 1, 1999