

Marvin Cheney

The Rev. Dr. Marvin Cheney, 57, of Hilldale, Ill., died March 14, at Eureka Community Hospital.

Services were held March 18 at Eureka Christian Church.

Rev. Cheney was born Dec. 20, 1938 in Deep River, the son of Vern and Doris McMahon Cheney. He was a 1956 graduate of Montezuma High School. He married Lana Hutchinson Aug. 30, 1959 in Montezuma.

He earned a bachelor's degree from Drake University. He earned a master's degree and did his seminary work at Union Theological Seminary in New York, N.Y. He earned a doctorate of ministry from McCormick Theological University in Chicago. He was minister at Eureka Christian Church for the past 26 years.

Rev. Cheney is survived by his wife; his mother of Montezuma; his mother-in-law, Margaret Hutchinson of Montezuma; two daughters: Mrs. Steve (Lisa) Bennett of Eureka and Mrs. Stuart (Angela) Berryman of Woodhull; two brothers: Everett of Las Vegas and Keith of Deep River; one sister: Gail Beebe of Phoenix, Ariz.; and six grandchildren.

1996
April 3
B C