

Elizabeth Childs

Elizabeth Brown Childs, 75, of Dallas, Texas, formerly of Grinnell, died March 1 at her home.

Funeral services were conducted in Dallas March 5.

Mrs. Childs, a registered nurse, worked for the Dallas Independent School District and later became a district supervisor. Following her retirement, she worked as a volunteer, aiding children with reading disabilities.

She was a native of Afton, Iowa, and graduated from nursing school at Grant Hospital in Chicago in 1938. She held a bachelor's degree from Texas Christian University and a master's from the University of North Texas. She had also worked as a flight attendant for American Airlines.

Surviving are two sons, Carl of San Francisco and Marshall of Dublin, Calif.; two sisters, Lois Whitcomb of Charlottesville, Va., and Geraldine Wagner of Garden City, Calif.; one brother, Robert Brown of Modesto, Calif.; and one grandchild.

M-R APR 15 1993