

Mrs. Jessie Childs Succumbs Friday

(James)

Funeral services for Mrs. Jessie Childs, 90, were held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at Bramer's funeral home in charge of the Rev. G.H. Hulsebus, pastor of First United Presbyterian church. Leo Shuler was organist.

Interment was in I.O.O.F. cemetery with Floyd McAllister, Howard Patten, J.L. McCluskey, James Murphy, Harley Burch and John Gritsch serving as pallbearers. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Korn were in charge of flowers.

Jessie Childs, daughter of Absalom and Mary McKimney Miller, was born Oct. 12, 1872, near Brooklyn. Her death occurred Nov. 30, 1962, at the home of her niece, Mrs. Harry Edelen, with whom she had lived for nearly three years.

On October 8, 1890, she was married to James Child and lived in this community the remainder of her life. At an early age she became a member of the Church of the Brethren.

Mrs. Childs was a member of the Order of Eastern Star.

Preceding her in death were her husband, parents, six sisters and three brothers. She is survived by a number of nieces and nephews.
