

H R January 21, 1980
Mrs. Chilton services set

Patricia L. Chilton, 56, of York City, later returning to 1617 Davis Ave. died Friday at Grinnell General Hospital. San Diego where she worked at an electronics company.

Services will be conducted at 1 p.m. today at the Smith Funeral Home, with Jack Thomas of Grinnell officiating. Survivors include four children, James A. Chilton Jr., Sandra Louise Shahan of Oxnard, Calif., Mrs. Kenneth (Debbie) Ryen of Grinnell and Dana Sackett of Bremerton, Wash.; 10 grandchildren; her mother, Mrs. Mary Styles of Salem, Ore.; two sisters, Mary Jane Burton of Westminster, Calif., and Jackie Dubin of Arcadia, Calif.; and a brother, James T. Rowe of Carlsbad, Calif. She was preceded in death by her father.

Burial will be at Hazelwood Cemetery.
The daughter of James and Mary Rowe, she was born March 21, 1923, at Bremerton, Wash. She moved with her family to San Diego, Calif., where she attended school. She was married to James A. Chilton.
Mrs. Chilton lived in New

H R January 24, 1980
Mrs. Chilton services held

Funeral services for Patricia L. Chilton, 56, of 1617 Davis Ave., who died Jan. 18 at Grinnell General Hospital, were conducted at 1 p.m. Monday at the Smith Funeral Home.

Officiating was Jack Thomas of Grinnell. Organist was Debbie Cooper, and pallbearers included Jerry Beal, David Herr, Ron Hopman and Gene Wedeking. Burial was at Hazelwood Cemetery.

Mrs. Chilton is survived by her children, James Ancel

Chilton Jr., Sandra Louise Shahan of Oxnard, Calif., Mrs. Kenneth (Debbie) Ryen of Grinnell, and Dana Sackett of Bremerton, Wash.; 10 grandchildren; her mother, Mrs. Mary Styles of Salem, Ore.; two sisters, Mary Jane Burton of Westminster, Calif., and Jackie Dubin of Arcadia, Calif.; and a brother, James T. Rowe of Carlsbad, Calif. She was preceded in death by her father.