Ms. Isabelle Clark,
librarian, dies

Isabelle Clark, former librarian at Grinnell College, died Nov. 23 in Kansas City, Mo.

Miss Clark was born in Cadiz, Ohio. She was head librarian for Grinnell College for 35 years before she retired in 1952. During a leave from the college, she established the Library of Pacific Relations in Honolulu.

After her retirement from Grinnell, Miss Clark went to Winter Park, Florida. A year later she moved to Claremont Calif., and spent 19 years there. Two years ago, she moved to Kansas City.

Miss Clark was a graduate of Bellevue College, Bellevue, Neb., and received a library science degree at the Western Reserve College, Cleveland.

Private services for Miss Clark were held Sunday, Nov. 23, followed by cremation.
