

PH. R. August 16, 1984
Raymond Clark

dies in Phoenix

Raymond Clark

Raymond L. Clark, 64, of 1709 W. Royal Palm Rd., Phoenix, Ariz., died Aug. 5 at Good Samaritan Medical Center.

Services were held Wednesday in Phoenix, with burial there.

Born in Kellogg, he moved to Phoenix in 1956 where he had been a meat cutter for Safeway Stores for 25 years. While living in Iowa, he was a meat cutter, working for his uncle, August Schultz, at the Kellogg Locker for many years. He served in the U.S. Army during World War II.

Survivors include his wife, Connie; his daughters, Claudia Bullard, Betty Lindsey, Carla Smith, Belinda Quintana and Diane Fuerte; his sons, Mike Clark and Edward Garcia; four brothers and 14 grandchildren.

His brothers, Dale Clark of Grinnell, Vernon Clark of Rochester, Minn., Bob Clark of Denver, Colo., and Bill Clark of West Des Moines, attended and participated in the services.