CLARK, Sarah Frances, 85, 12/11/66
Sarah Clark dies in Colorado

Sarah Frances Clark, 85, a former teacher in the Grinnell-Newburg district, died Dec. 11 in Haxtun, Colo.

Mrs. Clark was buried in Montana.

The daughter of George A. and Alice Armstrong Conrad, she was born Nov. 9, 1895, at Lake Preston, S.D. She was a graduate of Doan Academy and Wheaton College in Illinois.

She was married to Bradford Clark at Fort Shaw, Mont., where she taught and her husband farmed until 1944 when they moved to Grinnell.

She continued to teach here until 1961 when she moved to Fairfield, Mont., teaching there for five years. She moved to Haxtun in 1966 following her retirement.

Survivors include a son, Bradford J. Clark of Haxtun; six grandchildren; and one great-grandchild. She was preceded in death by her husband and five brothers and sisters.
