

Kim Clay

Kim Clay, 41, of St. Paul, Minn., formerly of Gilman, died recently at his home.

A graveside memorial service was held Friday at Prairie View Cemetery, Gilman, with the Rev. Richard Gamble of the Gilman Community Church of Christ officiating. The Estel-Perrin-Avey Funeral Home of Marshalltown was in charge of arrangements.

He was the son of Richard and Lavonne Doane Clay and was born March 8, 1957, in Marshalltown. He received his education in the former Southeast Marshall School District where he was active in drama and music. He graduated in 1975 and later received his bachelor's degree from the University of Iowa. He was a member of the Gilman United Methodist Church.

Surviving are his parents and one brother, Ron, all of Cedar Rapids.
