

Dr. James H. Clements

Dr. James H. Clements, 77, of Rte. 2, Grinnell, died Wednesday, July 22, at Iowa Methodist Medical Center in Des Moines of injuries he sustained in an automobile accident earlier that day in Grinnell.

The body has been cremated. Memorial services are planned for 10 a.m. Saturday, Aug. 1, at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Newton. Burial of the ashes will be at 2 p.m. that day at Westfield Cemetery southwest of Grinnell.

He was born in Newton and had lived in the Grinnell area most of his life. He retired as a district state veterinarian after 15 years of service. Prior to that he had been in private veterinary practice here for 20 years.

An Army veteran of World War II, he was a graduate of Iowa State University College of Veterinary Medicine. He was a member of the Iowa Veterinary Medical Association and the American Legion.

Surviving are two sons, Frank of Mitchellville and James of Newton; two daughters, Mary Halstead of Bondurant and Harriet Clements of Des Moines; eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

He was preceded in death by his wife, the former Helen Ruby Reckler.

Memorials in Dr. Clements' name may be made to the charity of the donor's choice.

H-R July 27, 1992