Last Rites Said
This Morning For
Mrs. Anna Clynch

Funeral services were held at St. Mary's church this morning in charge of Rev. Father Paul D. Moore for Mrs. Anna Alice Clynch, widow of Patrick Clynch who passed away about 11 years ago. Burial was made in Calvary cemetery. The Rosary was said at the James funeral home Sunday evening.

Mrs. Clynch died in a local hospital at 12:45 p. m. Friday. She had passed her 90th birthday last November. Besides her husband three sons preceded her in death. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Mae Brown of Des Moines and by five grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

Before her marriage Mrs. Clynch was Anna Creamer. She was a sister of J. C. Creamer, for many years a wellknown auctioneer in this community.
