

130
August 25, 1999

<sup>MS</sup>Dorothy L. Coburn

Graveside services for Dorothy L. Coburn, 84, of Diamond Care Facility, Montezuma, were held Monday afternoon, Aug. 16, at the Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery. The Rev. Ronald Van Heukelom, pastor of First Presbyterian Church in Brooklyn, officiated. Miss Coburn died Wednesday night, Aug. 11, 1999, at the Montezuma Nursing & Rehabilitation Center.

Dorothy Lucille Coburn, daughter of Arthur LeRoy Coburn and Mattie Ethel Jacobs Coburn, was born Feb. 9, 1915, in Brooklyn. She received her education in Brooklyn, and since 1944 has been a resident at Montezuma.

She was preceded in death by two sisters, Mildred Fouts and Bea Read; and two brothers, Harold and Kenneth Coburn.

Survivors include her brother and his wife, Donald and Birdie Coburn Sr. of Brooklyn, and a brother-in-law, Chalmer Read of Okoboji.

Nevenhoven Funeral Services were in charge of arrangements.

Dorothy L. Coburn

Graveside services for Dorothy L. Coburn, 84, of Diamond Care Facility, Montezuma, were held Monday afternoon, Aug. 16, at the Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery. The Rev. Ronald Van Heukelom, pastor of First Presbyterian Church in Brooklyn, officiated. Miss Coburn died Wednesday night, Aug. 11, 1999, at the Montezuma Nursing & Rehabilitation Center.

Dorothy Lucille Coburn, daughter of Arthur LeRoy Coburn and Mattie Ethel Jacobs Coburn, was born Feb. 9, 1915, in Brooklyn. She received her education in Brooklyn, and since 1944 has been a resident at Montezuma.

She was preceded in death by two sisters, Mildred Fouts and Bea Read; and two brothers, Harold and Kenneth Coburn.

Survivors include her brother and his wife, Donald and Birdie Coburn Sr. of Brooklyn, and a brother-in-law, Chalmer Read of Okoboji.

Nevenhoven Funeral Services were in charge of arrangements.

13C
August 25, 1999

Dorothy L. Coburn, 84

Miss Dorothy L. Coburn, 84, of Diamond Care Facility in Montezuma, died Aug. 11, 1999 at the Montezuma Nursing and Rehabilitation Center.

Graveside services were Aug. 16 at Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery. Rev. Ronald Van Heukelom, Pastor of First United Presbyterian Church, officiated.

Dorothy Lucille Coburn, daughter of Arthur LeRoy Coburn and Mattie Ethel Jacobs Coburn, was born Feb. 9, 1915 in Brooklyn. She received her education in Brooklyn and since 1944, was a resident of Montezuma.

Miss Coburn was preceded in death by her parents, two sisters, Mildred Fouts and Bea Read and two brothers, Harold and Kenneth Coburn.

She is survived by her brother and his wife, Donald and Birdie Coburn, Sr. of Brooklyn and a brother-in-law, Chalmer Read of Okoboji.

11B
August 18, 1999