Mrs. Crawford dies at 81

4-1-76

Pauline S. Crawford, 81, of Grinnell died Thursday afternoon at Friendship Manor. April 11

A family graveside service will be held following cremation at 1 p.m. Monday, April 19, at Hazelwood Cemetery. A memorial service for Mrs. Crawford will be held at a later date. Should friends desire, memorials may be sent to St. Paul's Episcopal Church. Friends may call the Smith Funeral Home for additional information.

The daughter of James and Mary Manning Sheppard, she was born Aug. 6, 1894, in Minnewaukan, N.D. She attended public schools in North Dakota and South Dakota, later attending the University of South Dakota.

On July 7, 1917, she was married to Irving Robison Crawford in Vermillion, S.D. The couple had three children. Following their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Crawford lived in Huron, S.D. Mr. Crawford was assigned to the War Crimes Commission, and they moved to Dachau, Germany, returning to Huron in 1950. They moved to Grinnell in 1955.

Mrs. Crawford was a lifetime member of the Episcopal Church. She was past South Dakota state president of the American Legion Auxiliary, past president of Chapter F of the P.E.O. in Huron, a member of Chapter B.M. of P.E.O. in Grinnell, and a member of the Poweshiek County Chapter, D.A.R.

Survivors include her three children, Coe I. Crawford of Guadalajara, Mexico, James K. Crawford of Des Moines, and Mrs. Al (Mary Kay) Eisenman of Grinnell; seven grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren. Mrs. Crawford was preceded in death by her husband; her parents; and two sisters Mrs. Mae S. Saunders and Mrs. Iwae S. Payne.

Hold Crawford memorial rites

4-1-76

Memorial services for Pauline Crawford, who died April 1, will be held Saturday, June 19, at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Grinnell at 1 p.m. She was the mother of Mrs. A.C. Eisenman of Grinnell.

The memorial service follows a previous graveside ceremony held after cremation on Monday, April 19, in Hazelwood Cemetery.

She was born in Minnewaukan, N.D., on Aug. 6, 1894 and attended public schools in North Dakota and South Dakota. On July 7, 1917 she was married to Irving Robison Crawford in Vermillion, S.D. The couple had three children. Mr. and Mrs. Crawford later moved to Huron, S.D., and eventually to Dachau, Germany because of a special assignment Mr. Crawford had received. They moved to Grinnell in 1955.

Mrs. Crawford was a member of the Episcopal Church, a past South Dakota state president of the American Legion Auxiliary, a member of Chapter B.M. of P.E.O. in Grinnell, and a member of the Poweshiek County Chapter, D.A.R.

Survivors include her three children, Coe I. Crawford of Guadalajara, Mexico, James K. Crawford of Des Moines, and Mrs. Al (Mary Kay) Eisenman of Grinnell; seven grandchildren, Jo An Eisenman Aprati of Iowa City, Rick Eisenman of Ann Arbor, Mich., John Eisenman of Grinnell, Vince Crawford of Iowa City, Coe Ann Crawford Hammond of Des Moines, Dean Crawford of Buffalo, N.Y. and Claire Crawford of New York, N.Y.; and three great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, her parents and two sisters, Mrs. Mae S. Saunders and Mrs. Iwae S. Payne.
