

Monday, October 22, 1962

OBITUARY

RAY CREPS

(Contributed)

Harlan Raymond Creps, son of Frank and Luella Creps, was born April 6, 1898, at Brooklyn and died Oct. 11, 1962, at Grinnell. He grew up in the Brooklyn community and attended rural schools.

On Jan. 14, 1929, he was married to Blanche Regner Paynter. Three sons were born to the couple—Ralph, David, and Earl.

Mr. Creps had spent his entire life on the farm southeast of Brooklyn where he was born until May 7 of this year when he moved to Brooklyn. He was a member of the United Presbyterian church.

Survivors include his widow, Blanche; three sons, Ralph, David, and Earl and a stepson, Paul Paynter, all of Brooklyn. He is also survived by a brother, Cecil Creps of Hartwick; two aunts, Mrs. Emer (Gladys) Thornton of Puyallup, Wash., and Mrs. Verna Veach of Eugene, Ore.; seven grandchildren and other relatives.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday, Oct. 14, at the First United Presbyterian church in Brooklyn with the Rev. G. H. Hulsebus officiating. Organist was Mrs. Ed Bartachek.

In charge of flowers were Mrs. Lois Lidtka, Hugh Montgomery, and Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Heishman. Pallbearers were Joseph Roth, Achiel Wauters, Ira Henry, Richard Williams, Denver Miles, and Morris La Kose.

Interment was in the I.O.O.F. cemetery at Brooklyn.

Rites For Ray Creps Conducted Sunday

The death of Ray Creps, Brooklyn farmer all of his life, occurred last Thursday at St. Francis hospital in Grinnell where he was admitted a week previously after suffering a stroke at his home in Brooklyn. He was 64 years old.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at First United Presbyterian church in charge of the Rev. G.H. Hulsebus. Organist was Mrs. Ed Bartachek.

Interment was in I.O.O.F. cemetery with Joseph Roth, Achiel Wauters, Ira Henry, Richard Williams, Denver Miles and Morris La Kose serving as pallbearers. In charge of flowers were Mrs. Lois Lidtka, Hugh Montgomery and Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Heishman.

Harlan Raymond Creps, son of Frank and Luella Creps, was born April 6, 1898, at Brooklyn and died October 11, 1962. He grew up in the Brooklyn community and attended rural schools.

On Jan. 14, 1929, he was married to Blanche Regner Paynter. Three sons were born to the couple, Ralph, David and Earl.

Mr. Creps had spent his entire life on the farm southeast of Brooklyn where he was born until May 7 of this year when he moved into Brooklyn. He was a member of the United Presbyterian church.

He is survived by his wife, Blanche; three sons, Ralph, David and Earl and a step-son, Paul Paynter, all of Brooklyn. He also