

MARK H. CROSSON

6. Mark H. Crosson, 87, of Holiday Lake, Brooklyn, died July 7, in Iowa Methodist Medical Center, Des Moines, following a short illness.

p Funeral services for Crosson were held July 10 in the Nevenhoven Funeral Home, Brooklyn. Rev. Kalen K. Fristad, Pastor of the Grace United Methodist Church, Brooklyn, officiated. The organist was Mrs. Marilyn Kriegel and special selections were "The Lord's Prayer", "In The Garden", and "Amazing Grace." Casket bearers were Matt Ailts, Chris Alits, David Crosson, Craig Heinrichs, Mike Murphy, and Terry Rhinchart. Interment was in Highland Cemetery, Eddyville, with Masonic Rites conducted by Eddyville Lodge No. 74 A.F. & A.M.

Mark H. Crosson, son of Sidney Pleasant Crosson and Auda Jennie Scott Crosson, was born Feb. 8, 1905, in Eddyville.

at 7-15-92
Mark received his education in Eddyville graduating from high school in 1923. On Aug. 7, 1926, he was united in marriage to Irene Potts in Newton. Mark did factory work and carpentry work, working with his father in house building in the Eddyville area. After his retirement, he worked for Manor House in Sigourney. They moved to Holiday Lake, in 1973.

BC n. Crosson was a member of the Eddyville Lodge No. 74 A.F. & A.M., Consistory at Des Moines, and Eastern Star Eddyville Chapter No. 100. He was a member of former Congregational Church of Eddyville.

r. Surviving are his wife, Irene; one brother, Jack Crosson of Brooklyn, and one sister, Mildred Zieke, of East Alton, Ill.

He was preceded in death by his parents, one sister, Lucille Winograsky, and two brothers, Guy and Robert.