—Mrs. J. Sargent Cummings died at her home in Bear Creek township, Saturday, December 29, 1900, after a few days' illness. Mr. and Mrs. Cumming were among the early settlers of north eastern Poweshiek, and have many friends among the older residents, especially in Brooklyn and Malcom. Mrs. Cummings had been confined closely to her home for several years, as the result of a fall from a carriage, and has endured great suffering from the injuries received in the accident. Her patience in suffering and her goodness of character will remain a lasting remembrance to her family and friends. Her invalid husband and daughters, remain to mourn the loss of a loving wife and mother.
