

Dixie Clark

Dixie S. Clark, 78, of Grinnell died Thursday, July 4, at Grinnell Regional Medical Center.

Funeral services were conducted Monday at the Harden Funeral Home in New Sharon, with Mike Melvin of the West Liberty Church of Christ officiating. Cremation followed the service, and burial of the ashes will be at Milton Cemetery at a later date.

She was born Aug. 10, 1923, in Milton, the daughter of Emmett C. and Alice Faye Thompson Kittle. She was raised and educated in the Milton area. She was married to Winfred "George" Clark.

A homemaker for most of her life, she had lived in Ottumwa for a short time before moving to New Sharon in 1958. She had worked at the Tower Park Nursing Home in Oskaloosa for several years.

A resident of Grinnell for the past eight years, she had recently moved to the Brookhaven Nursing Home in Brooklyn. She was a member of the West Liberty Church of Christ.

Surviving are two sons, Dannie of Brooklyn and Donnie of Oskaloosa; three daughters, Alice Bogaards of Des Moines, Doris Butcher of Grinnell and Linda Eklofe of Chandler, Ariz.; 13 grandchildren; 15 great-grandchildren; and one sister, Kathryn Madsen of West Burlington.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; an infant son, Ronald Loren Clark; three sisters; three brothers; and one granddaughter.

Memorial contributions may be made to her church.

H-R
July 8, 2002