Emma Curry services held

Emma A. Curry, 92, of Gilman died Friday afternoon, March 12, at her home.

Funeral services were conducted at 3:30 p.m. Monday at the Gilman United Methodist Church, with Dr. Harold Dellit, pastor of the First United Methodist Church of Fort Dodge, and the Rev. Donna Van Maanen, pastor of the Gilman United Methodist Church, officiating. Organist was Carol Plum. Pallbearers were Rick Dellit, Ronald Dellit, Danny Fleenor, Gary Williams, and Eldon, Gaylon and Lonny Wunn.

Burial was in the Melbourne Cemetery.

Memorials in Mrs. Curry's name may be made to the Gilman United Methodist Church. Friends may call the Smith Funeral Home for additional information.

She was the daughter of Karl

Friedrich "Charley Fred" and August Wilhelmine "Minnie" Muller Propp. She attended rural schools in Jasper County. On Feb. 25, 1914, she was married to George Rilcy Curry in Newton. They farmed near Haverhill and Laurel until 1946 when they retired and moved to Gilman. Mrs. Curry was a member of the Gilman United Methodist Church and the United Methodist Women.

She is survived by three daughters, Bess Wunn of Gilman, Gladys Fleenor of Cambridge and Lucile Dellit of Fort Dodge; 12 grandchildren; 22 great-grandchildren; four great-great-grandchildren; and one sister, Margaret Witte of Melbourne.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, George; two brothers, Simon and Herman Propp; and one great-grandchild.
