

Mary Dagney rites are held

(Daniel)

Mary Ellen Dagney, 74, of St. Francis Manor died Thursday, Oct. 27, at Grinnell General Hospital.

Graveside services were conducted at 9 a.m. Saturday, with the Rev. Willa Goodfellow, priest-in-charge of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, officiating. Burial was in Hazelwood Cemetery.

She was the daughter of Lyle and Margaret Westbay Spangler and was born March 20, 1914, in Berkeley, Calif. She received her education in the Sacramento, Calif., area and lived in Mill Valley, Calif, from 1945 to 1983. After living for a year in Sacramento, she moved to Grinnell.

She was married to William P. Cavanagh in 1939, and the couple had two children. Following Mr. Cavanagh's death, she was married to Daniel Dagney in 1969 in Reno, Nev. They lived in California until his death.

Mrs. Dagney was a bookkeeper for a drug store in Mill Valley. She was also active in the Marin County Association for Retarded Citizens. She was a member of the American Legion Auxiliary, the Church of Our Savior in Mill Valley and St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Grinnell.

Surviving are two children, Michael of Grinnell and Patricia of Newton; two grandchildren; and three brothers, Bill, Bob and Clayton Spangler, all of Nicolas, Calif.

Memorials in Mrs. Dagney's name may be made to Progress Industries of Newton and left at the Smith Funeral Home here.
