An Obituary Notice Of Chas. R. Dannenberg

Charles R. Dannenberg was born July 24, 1854, in Brandenberg, Germany, and died at the W. E. Malcolm home in Deep River, Iowa, February 8, 1936, aged 81 years, six months and 15 days. He was married to Alina Lash on June 4th, 1881, in Reinsberg, Germany, to which union four children were born, two of whom died in infancy.

He leaves to mourn his loss two children, Mrs. Lizzie Malcolm of Deep River and Dr. A. Dannenberg of Bemidji, Minn., and two grandchildren, Wilma Malcolm of Los Angeles, Calif., and Charles Malcolm of Walnut Grove, Calif. His wife preceded him in death four years ago this February.

Mr. Dannenberg was a member of the I. O. O. F. lodge of Grinnell. He was a resident of Grinnell for 25 years and operated a tailor shop. He made a host of friends and was known as "Charlie the Tailor."

For the past 18 years he has made his home in Deep River where he continued his tailoring until the time of his sickness. Being a lover of nature he spent many happy hours fishing and hunting, always accompanied by his faithful dog. He was a good neighbor, a loving friend and cheerful companion, his friendly smile and cheerful words will be missed by his friends.

Funeral services were held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. E. Malcolm, at two o'clock, Tuesday afternoon conducted by the Rev. Mr. Pritchard, pastor of the M. E. church of Deep River. Mrs. J. B. Pritchard sang two songs. The pallbearers were Howard Cox, C. E. Axtell, Ollie Connell, Otto Hopwood, Phin Icenbice and Carl Pierce.

He was laid to rest by the side of his wife in Goldenrod cemetery at Deep River. His son, Dr. A. Dannenberg was present for the funeral.
