

Brooklyn Paper
Dec 24, 1986
VIOLA M. DAVIS

(Lavern)

Viola M. Davis, 49, of Ladora, died Dec. 18, 1986 in Cedar Rapids.

She was the daughter of Emil William and Gladys May Baker Zuber and was born July 5, 1937 at Iowa City. The family later moved to the Millersburg area where she was graduated from Millersburg High School, Class of 1956.

On Sept. 12, 1956 she was married to Lavern H. Davis at the Ohio Methodist Church near Ladora. The couple lived at Williamsburg where she worked for the Little Chicago Cafe. In 1962 Mr. and Mrs. Davis moved to Ladora and she worked at the Victorian Inn near Victor. For the past 17 years she had worked as a technician at University Hospitals in Iowa City.

She is survived by her husband Lavern H. Davis of Ladora; two sons: Douglas Davis and Scott Davis, both of Iowa City; and her sister: Evelyn Rose Schmidt of Williamsburg. She was preceded in death by her parents.

Services were Dec. 22, 1986 at the McAninch-Fremming Funeral Home at Victor with the Rev. Robert Barrick, pastor of the Ladora United Methodist Church, officiating.