

WILLIAM ELDON DAVIS

William was the son of Vernon Harold and Erma Lou Bingeegar Davis and was born March 10, 1953 at Montezuma. He attended Montezuma School. He lived in Colorado for 10 years where he was in the hide and fur business and later in the stone supply business. He returned to Iowa in 1983 to live in the Victor area. He was married to Linda L. Williamson Bringmann Aug. 1, 1987 in Ladora. The couple lived in near Ladora and together they operated a salvage business.

Bill is survived by his wife, Linda; to sons: Billy Davis and Chad Davis both of Craig, Colo.; two step children, LeRoy Bringmann of Ladora and LeAnn Renee Meeks of Belle Plaine; four step grandchildren; and two brothers and two sisters, Gene Davis of Barnes City, Terry Davis of New Sharon, Mrs. Bonnie Johnson of Brooklyn and Debra Davis of Oskaloosa.

Bill died at Marengo Hospital May 4 at the age of 41 of a heart ailment. He was preceded in death by three brothers, Rick Davis in 1986, Harold Edward (Buddy) Davis at the age of four in 1948, and Vernon Lee Davis in infancy. He was also preceded in death by his father in 1984 and his mother in 1986.

No visitation or funeral services are planned at this time. Private family memorial services will be held in early June in the mountain range of northwest Colorado.
