

Mrs. DeCorte
H.R. September 25, 1980
mass is held

(Oswald.)

Mrs. Margaret DeCorte, 66, of Brooklyn, died Friday morning at Grinnell General Hospital. Sept. 19

A funeral mass for Mrs. Margaret DeCorte was held at 10:30 a.m. Monday in St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Brooklyn, with the Rev. Fr. Karl Holtkamp, pastor of St. Patrick's, the celebrant.

Organist was Mrs. Sally Gates. In care of flowers were Mrs. Eula Van Tomme and Mrs. William Korns.

Pall bearers were Roger Clayton, Everett Seye, Delmar Ford, Richard Carter, Julian DeGeeter and Frank Van Tomme.

Rosary services were held at 2 p.m. Sunday by the Altar and Rosary Society and at 8 p.m. Sunday by the parish. Interment was in the Calvary Cemetery in Brooklyn.

Margart Leona DeCorte, daughter of Eve and Louise Vermace Steyaert, was born on Sept. 16, 1914, east of Brooklyn.

She was married to Oswald DeCorte on Nov. 25, 1937, in Brooklyn. She lived all her life in the Brooklyn area.

Surviving her are her husband, Oswald; two daughters, Mrs. Lawrence (Marian) Ricken of Haverhill and Mrs. John (Frances) Davis of Grinnell; two sisters, Mrs. Emil (Marie) Bloome of Victor and Mrs. Lewis (Grace) DeVilder of Brooklyn.

She was preceded in death by her parents and one brother.