Jennie Dearing Services Held

LYNNVILLE (Special): Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Tuesday, June 23, at the Lynnville Friends Church in Lynnville for Mrs. Jennie Dearing, 58, who died Saturday, June 29, in the Mahaska Hospital in Oskaloosa following a brief illness.

The Rev. Delano Cunningham and the Rev. Sidney Brown officiated at the services.

Organist was Harriet Macy and soloist was Homer McDowell.

Pallbearers were Wilbur Stanley, Ray Ver Steeg, Jim Terlouw, Jones Harris, Howard Macy and Glen Van Genderen.

Flower attendants were Alice Sparks, Louise Crews and Ruth Terpstra.

Burial was in Woodland Cemetery with Hardin Funeral Home of New Sharon in charge.

Mrs. Dearing was born in Deep River on Jan. 24, 1912. On Nov. 6, 1931, at Lancaster, Mo., she was married to Ozro Dearing. She lived most of her married life in Lynnville and was a member of the Lynnville Friends Church. She was active in church work.

Survivors include three sons—Jim of Waukee, Richard in service in Iran and David of Lynnville; five grandchildren; and one sister, Mrs. Cleo Cornaker of Clinton.

Mrs. Dearing was preceded in death by her parents and her husband, Ozro, who died in 1968.
