

2-28 MRS. C. E. DECATUR. 1921

Mrs. C. E. Decatur, for many years one of Grinnell's useful and noble women, died at 4 o'clock this morning at St. Francis hospital where for several days she had lain critically ill. She was 67 years old and is survived by her devoted husband and by her son, Harry.

No one in Grinnell could be more sincerely mourned than is Mrs. Decatur. During the days of her activity she was prominent in every good work. She has been identified with all the movements for the betterment of Grinnell during her long life here and in her home and outside of it she has been a shining influence for good. She is sincerely mourned by a wide circle of friends among whom The Herald wishes to be numbered.

Funeral arrangements had not been completed at time of going to press.
