

Louise Deem

Louise Deem, 83, of St. Francis Manor died Wednesday, Feb. 20, at Grinnell General Hospital.

The body was donated to the University of Iowa College of Medicine. A memorial service will be held at a later date.

She was born April 15, 1907, in Burlington, the daughter of Joseph and Anna Busch Buchl. She attended St. Patrick's School in Burlington. A homemaker, she moved to Grinnell last year.

Surviving are two daughters, Lorraine Hawn of Grinnell and Mary Ann Parry of Orion, Ill.; one son, Lyman Conn of Denver, Colo.; two sisters, Elsie Powell of Kalamazoo, Mich., and Esther Borg of Chicago; six grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her first husband, Lyman E. Conn; and her second husband, Charles M. Deem.

H-R February 21, 1991

CHARLES M

Louise Deem

A memorial service for Louise E. Deem, 83, of St. Francis Manor, who died Feb. 20 at Grinnell General Hospital, will be conducted at 2 p.m. Saturday, April 13, in the social rooms of Autumn Heights Retirement Center in Burlington.

The Rev. Gregg A. Donaldson, pastor of the Burlington Oak Street Baptist Church, will officiate.

Mrs. Deem had willed her body to the University of Iowa College of Medicine.

She is survived by two daughters, Lorraine Hawn of Grinnell and Mary Ann Parry of Orion, Ill.; one son, Lyman E. Conn of Denver, Colo.; two sisters; six grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

H-R April 3, 1991