Sarah Meyer Dieleman, daughter of Cornelius and Dora Meyer, was born in The Netherlands on Dec. 6th, 1874, and passed away at the Greater Community hospital at Creston, Iowa, on March 2nd, 1964, after several weeks of illness.

She came to the United States at the age of seven years. She spent most of her life in Jasper county, except for the past few years when she resided at Adel and Creston. She also had resided in Grinnell.

On Feb. 5th, 1903, she was married to John Dieleman. To this union four children were born: Mrs. Lloyd (Mabel) Brown of Adel, E. J. (George) Dieleman of Creston, Mrs. Joe (Jeanetta) Long of Petaluma, Calif., and Lester Dieleman of Newton, who preceded her in death in 1962.

Other survivors include six grandchildren; eight great grandchildren; one sister, Martha Meyer of Newton; and the following sisters and brothers-in-law: Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Moes, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Vandenhoek and Mrs. Jennie DeJong.

Funeral services were held at the Coen funeral home in Creston on Wednesday, March 4th, at 10:30 a.m. Graveside services were held at 3 p.m. that same day at Hazelwood cemetery in Grinnell, where interment was made.

Following that service, the family gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Brooks of Grinnell.
