

H-R MARCH 8, 1982

Mrs. Dimit
rites today

(HAROLD)

Helen M. Dimit, 75, of Grinnell died Friday morning, March 5, at Grinnell General Hospital following a brief illness.

Funeral services were conducted at 1:30 p.m. today at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Daniel I. Ogata, pastor of the First United Presbyterian Church, officiating. Interpreter was the Rev. Clarence Gullett of the Assembly of God Church, Des Moines. Organist was Alice Renaud, and pallbearers were Richard Bachman, Robert Cooper, Dale Harris, Raymond Koger, Dale Peak, Clifford Strovers and Arthur Wells.

Fraternal rites were conducted by members of the Grinnell Rebekah Lodge No. 119, with burial at Hazelwood Cemetery.

The daughter of Morton M. and Dollie V. Evans Gregson, she was born Aug. 19, 1906, in the Blue Point community southeast of Grinnell. She attended rural schools near the family farm and later graduated from Grinnell High School in 1924.

She was married to Harold E. Dimit in 1928. She came to Grinnell in 1945 and was employed by the telephone company for 12 years as an operator. She was a member of the Grinnell First United Presbyterian Church and the Rebekah Lodge.

Survivors include three sons, Robert M. Dimit of Rte. 2, James Dimit of Kirksville, Mo., and Gerald W. Dimit of Grinnell, and five grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband and four sisters, Bertha Gregson, Velma Bitcon, Agnes Peterson and Ada Sergeant.