

(ORVILLE)

Death Comes To Gilman

Gilman, July 8: Funeral services for Mrs. Orville Doane who died at 1:30 Tuesday morning at the Evangelical Hospital in Marshalltown will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Gilman Methodist church in charge of Rev. Corwin Taylor of the local church assisted by Rev. Nelson Murdock. Burial will be in the Prairie View Cemetery, Gilman.

Born Anna Todd, only child of Robert and Ellen Todd at Kimball, S. D. March 25, 1884, the family lived there seven years when they moved to Iowa locating in Jasper county in 1891 seven miles southwest of Gilman.

There she attended the country school and on March 6, 1904 was united in marriage with Orville Doane. In her early girlhood she joined the United Brethren Church at Union Chapel 6 miles southwest of Gilman. In 1933 the family moved into Gilman and Mrs. Doane became a member of the Methodist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Doane were parents of five children, one dying in infancy. Surviving with the husband are Robert L. Doane, of Clovis, N. Mex., Bruce Doane and Mrs. Nellie Dixon of Gilman and Mrs. Glen (Mary) Brayton of Yakima, Washington. Also there are 6 grand children and one great grand child. Mrs. Doane was also a faithful member of the Gilman Woman's Christian Temperance Union.