David Donnan.

David Campbell Donnan was born in Rock Island county, Ill., May 3, 1868. and departed this life December 23, 1914, after a lingering illness of some months aged 46 years, 7 months and 20 days.

He was the son of John and Jane Donnan. He was the fifth son, three preceding him in death. He mourn his loss four sisters and two brothers: Mary Jane, Susanna Robert James, William M., Lizzie Beattie, Anna M. Rutherford.

In the spring of 1870 he moved with his parents from Rock Island county Ill., to Iowa. He was a generous, kind hearted man. He expressed himself often during the last days of his illness that he was willing and ready to go and at times would refer to his conversion a few years ago at a revival meeting held at Blue Point.

For several years he had made his home with his sisters, Mary J. and Susan Donnan.

He selected the hymns that he wanted sung at his funeral and also the scripture text, Matt. 7-1 and his pallbearers.

The funeral was conducted by Rev E. M. Gregson, of New Sharon, at Ewart, Saturday, December 26, at 2 p. m. and the remains were laid to rest in the Ewart cemetery there to await the resurrection morn.
