

Last Rites Friday For John Doonan

Last rites for John Doonan, 78, were held last Friday at 2:00 p.m. at Bramer's funeral home in charge of the Rev. G.H. Hulsebus, pastor of First United Presbyterian church. Organist was Mrs. Ed Bartachek.

Burial was at the Deep River cemetery with Floyd Griffith, Don Coburn, C.J. Sutphin, Charles Willett, H.B. McMullin and Cliff Williamson serving as pallbearers. In charge of flowers were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Stauffer.

John James Doonan, son of John and Mary Parks Doonan, was born near Brooklyn Nov. 22, 1883, and died at St. Francis hospital in Grinnell July 24, 1962, following several weeks illness.

On June 4, 1912, he was married to Anna Josephine Baustian. Four children were born to the couple. Mr. Doonan had lived and worked in this community all of his life with the exception of eleven years when he was employed at the Maytag Company at Newton where he retired in 1954.

Survivors include his wife; one son, Sylvanus of Brooklyn; one daughter, Mrs. Jack (Marlene) Newman of Guernsey; one brother, Sam, of Marshalltown; three grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Preceding him in death were his parents; two sisters; two brothers and two sons, Garlan in 1919, and Lewis, in 1946.
