ANNA DOONAN

Mrs. Anna Doonan, 97, of Brooklyn, died Monday night, Jan. 16, 1989, in the Brookhaven Nursing Home.

Funeral Services for Mrs. Anna Doonan were held at 10 a.m., Thursday, Jan. 19, in the Nevehovon Funeral Home, Brooklyn. Rev. Raymond D. Moore of Knoxville and a former Pastor of the Grace United Methodist Church of Brooklyn, officiated. The organist was "Mrs. Sybil Kelley" and the soloist was Mrs. Sue Kluber. Cast: Nicholas "Fido" Baustian, Wayne Baustian, Lorraine Baustian, Gerald Baustian, George Baustian, and Paul Wagner. Interment was at the Golden Road Cemetery, Deep River.

Anna Josephine Baustian Doonan, daughter of Peter Joseph and Caroline Baustian, was born December 5, 1891, in Sheridan Township, rural Grinnell, la.

Mrs. Doonan received her education in a rural school in the Grinnell area. On June 4, 1912, she was united in marriage to John J. Doonan in Deep River. They moved to Brooklyn in 1929 where she worked in restaurants as a cook and a waitress.

Mrs. Doonan was baptized in the Lutheran Church.

Survivors include one son, Sylvanus "Slim" S. Doonan of Brooklyn; one daughter, Mrs. Marlene Newman of Brooklyn; three grandchildren, James L. Doonan, Jerry L. Doonan, and Diana L. Rhinehart; 8 great-grandchildren; and 10 great-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband who died July 24, 1962; two sons, Lewis and Garland; two brothers, Frank Baustian and Carl Baustian; and one great-great-grandchild.

Anna Doonan

Anna Doonan, 97, of Brooklyn died Monday, Jan. 16, at the Brookhaven Nursing Home.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday at the Nevehovon Funeral Home in Brooklyn, with the Rev. Raymond D. Moore officiating. Organist was Sybil Kelley, and soloist was Sue Kluber. Pallbearers were Bud, Wayne, Lorraine, Gerald and George Baustian, and Paul Wagner. Burial was in Golden Road Cemetery, Deep River.

She was the daughter of Peter J. and Caroline Baustian and was born Dec. 5, 1891, in Sheridan Township. She received her education in a rural school in the Grinnell area.

She was married to John J. Doonan in Deep River June 4, 1912. They moved to Brooklyn in 1929 where Mrs. Doonan worked as a cook and waitress.

She is survived by one son, Sylvanus "Slim" S. Doonan of Brooklyn; a daughter, Marlene Newman of Brooklyn; three grandchildren, six great-grandchildren; and 10 great-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; two sons, Lewis and Garland; two brothers, Frank and Carl Baustian; and one great-great-grandchild.