

William H. Duggan

William Henry Duggan, 61, of Tama died following a lengthy illness Wednesday, Nov. 22, at his home.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday at Harrison Funeral Home in Tama, with the Rev. Dewey Grimes officiating. Casket bearers were Warren, Mike and Dwayne Frahm; Kevin Graff; Ed Hardon; and Randy Nekola.

Burial was in Sheridan Cemetery, rural Grinnell.

He was the son of William Henry and Anna May Campbell Duggan and was born Sept. 29, 1939, in Marshalltown. He was a 1958 graduate of Tama High School and attended DeVry Technical School in Chicago. He served in the National Guard.

He was married to Mary Jane Bidwell Jan. 27, 1963, in Tama.

Mr. Duggan was a television repair technician and had previously worked for Fuller's TV and Hardon's Hardware Hank. He owned Duggan's TV Repair of Tama.

Surviving are his wife; one daughter, Tiffany Gaulden of Tama; one son, William of Montezuma; two grandsons; and three step-grandsons. He was preceded in death by his parents.

A memorial fund has been established.