

H-R. February 7, 1983

Amelia Ebert services held

Amelia Ebert, 86, of Kellogg died Monday morning, Jan. 31, at the Colonial Manor nursing home in Baxter.

Funeral services were conducted at 1:30 p.m. Thursday at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Kellogg, with the Rev. Alfred Schultz officiating. Burial was at Our Silent City Cemetery in Kellogg.

The daughter of Christopher and Amelia Schultz Hasselbrink, she was born May 13, 1896, in Kellogg and attended Jasper County schools. She was married to Gus Ebert on Feb. 24, 1927, in Marshalltown.

Mrs. Ebert was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, the Mixmaster Farm Bureau Ladies Club and the American Legion Auxiliary.

She is survived by her husband; a son, Gael of Knoxville; four daughters, Joyce Parsons of Newton, Carmen Gill of Kellogg, Chris Lehfeld of Des Moines and Carol Vander Ploeg of Pella; 11 grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; two brothers, Albert Hasselbrink of Newton and Louis Hasselbrink of Kellogg; and two sisters, Elsie Reed of Kellogg and Mrs. Elmer Kooistra of Newton.

(GUS)