

Clyde Eddy

Clyde V. Eddy, 72, of Gilman died Tuesday, Sept. 8, at Marshalltown Medical and Surgical Center.

Funeral services will be conducted at 1:30 p.m. Friday at the Laurel United Methodist Church, with the Rev. Neil Montz officiating. Burial will be in Graceland Cemetery, with flag-folding rites conducted by the Laurel American Legion.

The son of Cleveland and Ida Jane Speak Eddy, he was born June 24, 1926, in Centerville.

He was raised and educated in the Centerville area and attended Centerville High School. He then moved to Illinois, and in 1944 he joined the U.S. Army, serving until 1947. After his discharge, he lived in Des Moines, Iowa Falls and, since 1959, the Laurel area. He was self-employed in farming and auto mechanics.

His first marriage was to Wanita Baker.

On Aug. 14, 1959, he was married to Doris Laverty in Newton.

Surviving are his wife; four children, Sharolyn Wheatcraft of Newton, William of Waterloo, Sarah Jane Eddy of Gilman and Samuel E. of Gilman; six grandchildren; one great-grandchild; and one sister, Mona Howard of Moulton.

He was preceded in death by his parents, one granddaughter and six brothers and sisters.

A memorial fund is being established.

H-R September 10, 1998