

Rollin Edelen

Rollin C. Edelen, 85, of Estherville, a native of Brooklyn, died Saturday, Nov. 27, at Holy Family Hospital in Estherville.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday at the First Presbyterian Church of Estherville, with graveside services at Brooklyn Cemetery. Military rites were conducted by members of Frances Gallagher American Legion Post of Brooklyn.

H-R December 2, 1993
The son of Charles H. and Nora Belle Forney Edelen, he was born May 17, 1908, in Brooklyn. He attended Brooklyn and Hartwick schools and later attended the University of Minnesota.

H-R December
He was employed as a traveling salesman prior to moving to Estherville in 1935. He was a veteran of the U.S. Army, serving from 1943 to 1946. Following his discharge from the service, he operated Estherville Concrete Products until 1968. He served in the Iowa House of Representatives from 1971 to 1974 and was an Emmet County supervisor from 1977 to 1980.

He was a trustee of the First Presbyterian Church and was a member of the Masonic Lodge, Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Estherville Chamber of Commerce. He was a past board member of the Estherville Industrial Development Corporation.

He was married to Nina Montgomery July 22, 1930, in Brooklyn. She preceded him in death, as did his parents; four brothers, Harry, John, Walter and Wallace; and two sisters, Lelyse Wilson and Lois Otterstedt.

There are no immediate survivors.