George, son of William and Catherine Ehret, was born in Deep River Township, Poweshiek county, Apr. 28, 1868, and died July 26, at 95 years of age.

He attended rural school and joined the Deep River Methodist church in his youth. He transferred his membership to the Montezuma church, where he attended faithfully, as long as his health permitted.

Dec. 7, 1892, he was united in marriage with Myrtle Gross. To this union, one son, Cloyd, was born. Cloyd met an accidental death at 13 years of age.

Forty years ago, they moved to a farm north of Montezuma, where they resided until 1943, when he retired and moved into town.

Since the death of Mrs. Ehret in 1956, he has made his home with his great-nephew, Harold Inman and wife, Ada, who have tenderly cared for him.

He is survived by several nieces and nephews, other relatives and many friends.
