Former Resident Percy Ellis Succumbs Today

Percy Ellis, former Grinnell resident, died early this morning at a Seymour, Wisc., hospital. He had made his home in Seymour for the past several years.

He had been ill for several months following a heart attack last summer.

Mr. Ellis operated the canning factory in Grinnell for a number of years.

Funeral arrangements are still pending but will be held in Wisconsin on Wednesday.

Survivors include two sons, Donald and Larry Ellis, both of Grinnell.
