

Oliver Elscott

Oliver Elscott, 86, of Iron Mountain, Mich., formerly of the Lynnville-Sully area, died Monday, July 3, at an Iron Mountain hospital.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday in Iron Mountain.

The son of Arie and Henrietta Beyer Elscott, he was born April 19, 1903, in the Lynnville-Sully area. He attended rural school and later graduated from William Penn College in Oskaloosa. He received a master's degree from the University of Iowa.

Mr. Elscott was a teacher in the Iron Mountain schools for 35 years. He was married to Dorothy Masters in State Center in 1931.

Surviving are his wife and a brother, Ernest of Newton. He was preceded in death by his parents; a brother, Guy; and a sister, Mrs. L.E. Wagamon.

H-12 July 10, 1989