

GRINNELL, IOWA, I

Estabrook, Retired Kellogg Merchant, Dies Wednesday

APR 25 1964
Ross B. Estabrook, 69, retired Kellogg merchant, died Wednesday at a local hospital after a lingering heart illness.

Funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock Saturday at Smith funeral home, with burial at Oxford.

Moving to Kellogg from Oxford over 40 years ago, Estabrook was in the restaurant and grocery business at Kellogg.

Ross Bigelow Estabrook, son of the Charles Taylor Estabrook and Anna Watson, was born at Oxford, Iowa, April 25, 1894. He was married April 13, 1904, at Russell Springs, Kan., to Emma Sherlock.

They have one daughter, Mrs. L. E. (Rose) Wetterholm of LaGrange, Ill. Two grandchildren, Esta and Mary Wetterholm, are both students at Grinnell college.

Estabrook attended the Kellogg Christian church and was a member of Meredian Masonic lodge in Kellogg.

Survivors are his wife, daughter and grandchildren, also four sisters, Mrs. F. J. Lloyd of Chicago, Mrs. R. J. McCleary of Laurel, Mrs. K. A. Kirkpatrick of St. Paul, Minn., and Mrs. Grant Lehmann of Huron S. D., and two brothers, Claire and Milo Estabrook.