Barkley Everts services held

Barkley M. Everts, 79, of Gilman died Sunday evening, Nov. 18, at the Sunny Hill Care Center in Tama where he had been a patient since January.

Funeral services were conducted at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Gilman Community Church, with the Rev. Jerry Cassidy officiating. Burial was at Prairie View Cemetery, Gilman, with the Estel-Perrin-Avey Funeral Home in Marshalltown in charge of arrangements. Masonic rites were conducted by the Gilman Masonic Lodge.

The son of Joseph Samuel and Lana A. Annick Everts, he was born Nov. 12, 1905, at Gilman. His mother died while he was young, and he was raised by an uncle, Bart McDaniel, near Gilman.

He attended the Gilman schools, graduating in 1925. After completing his education he was employed by the Gilman Canning Co.

On June 2, 1927, he was married to Margaret Esther Barnes in Nashua. The couple returned to the farm where he was born. He was also a salesman for the Lynk Brothers and Bard Seed companies. He was a member of Cyrus Masonic Lodge No. 338, Gilman; Marshall Lodge No. 108, Marshalltown; and the Za-Ga-Zig Shrine of Des Moines.

Mr. Everts is survived by one son, Harley; one daughter, Elaine Appelgate of Toledo; eight grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; one brother, Raymond Everts of Sarasota, Fla.; and two half-brothers, Merle Everts of Green Castle, Tenn., and Ralph Everts of Leithfield, Ky.

He was preceded in death by his wife; his parents; and one brother, Harley Everts Raudabaugh.
