

Mrs. James Ewart 5-1-1934 Funeral Sunday

Funeral services for Mrs. James Ewart were held from the home on south East street Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Robert Inglis. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends to mourn the passing of a devoted wife and mother. The music was in charge of Mrs. Edwin Parish. Pall bearers were J. S. Copeland, David Agnew, George Morrison, Harry Latcham, William Cleland and Edwin Parish. Burial was in the Ewart mausoleum in the cemetery at Ewart.

Mrs. Ewart died at 2:55 a. m. April 27, 1934. She had been in failing health for more than two years, her last illness covering a period of several weeks. Her sister, Mrs. Tom Broughton of Detroit, was with her during this time and with other relatives from out of town, was here for the funeral.

Henrietta Aldis was Mrs. Ewart's maiden name. She was the daughter of Salem and Victoria Aldis, and was born in Chatham, Ontario, Canada, May 22, 1884. She first came to Poweshiek county in the year 1900 to visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Tom Ewart, of Ewart. Soon after her coming to Iowa, the Ewart brothers, Tom and Jim, went to Chicago where they engaged in the commission business, and it was while living in Chicago, September 25, 1901, that she and Mr. Ewart were married.

In 1904 they returned to the old farm at Ewart, Iowa, where they resided until 1917 when they came to Grinnell and purchased the lovely home at the corner of Sixth Ave. and Broad street where Dr. and Mrs. Brooker now reside. After five or six years in Grinnell however, they went back to the farm for a time, returning again to
