

Services For George Faircloth To Be Held

H-P Dec 4, 1958

Funeral services for George Washington Faircloth, who passed away Tuesday evening in a local rest home, will be held at the Smith Funeral Home at 1:00 p.m. Friday.

Rev. Gene Reasoner, pastor of the Glad Tidings Assembly of God Church, will officiate. Pallbearers will be Floyd Stewart, Tom Godfrey, Ben Buck, Dwight Pearce, George Decatur and Lawrence Decatur. Mrs. Kathleen Heffner will serve as organist. Burial will be in Westfield Cemetery.

George Faircloth had just passed his 90th birthday, being born on Oct. 2, 1868 in Poweshiek county, the son of Solomon Bethel and Catherine Prosser Faircloth.

He had farmed in the Grinnell area until moving to Grinnell 35 years ago.

He is survived by his sister, Mrs. Alice Burnham of Grinnell. Preceding him in death were four sisters and two brothers: Isabelle and Emma Elliott, Jennie Schooley, Mary Buck, and Oliver and Charles Faircloth; and his parents.
