

Roberta B. Farr, 86

Roberta B. Farr, 87, of Montezuma, died Thursday, June 27, at the Montezuma Nursing & Rehabilitation Center.

A funeral service was Monday, July 1, at Watts Funeral Home, Montezuma, with the Rev. H. Burr Bryant officiating. Interment was at Pine Hill Cemetery, Des Moines.

Honorary casket bearers were Lloyd Lowe, Mike Harmeyer, Dale Druffe, J.T. Childers, Kenny Schultz, and Clifton Nelson.

Roberta was born July 4, 1914, at Alden, the daughter of Ray and Josephine (Knudson) Catlin. She graduated from Alden High School. In 1936, she was united in marriage with Samuel Jay Farr. They lived most of their lives at Des Moines. Music was a big part of Roberta's life. She worked much of her life in food service as a cashier. Samuel died in 1972, and Roberta moved to Montezuma in 1993.

Roberta was preceded in death by her husband, Samuel and a daughter, Geraldine.

She is survived by her children and their families, Richard Pettigrew of Eldora; Barbara Schafer of Tuscon, Ariz.; Stan Halfpop of Colorado; Larry Mitchell of Colorado; Juanita Brown of Kimberling City, Mo.; Judith Bradford of Montezuma; Donald Farr of Loveland, Colo.; Robert Farr of Ankeny; and Dennis Farr of Des Moines; 21 grandchildren; 27 great-grandchildren; 10 great-great-grandchildren; one sister, Marlys Boyenga of Florida; and one brother, Chuck Catlin of Colorado.

MR July 3, 2002