Pearl Fellows memorial held

Pearl M. Fellows, 89, of the Mayflower Home died Thursday afternoon, Dec. 2, at Grinnell General Hospital.

A memorial service was conducted at 10:30 a.m. today at Denison Chapel of the Mayflower Home, with the Rev. Philip Ramstad, pastor of the United Church of Christ — Congregational, officiating. Following cremation, burial was at Newton Union Cemetery, with the Smith Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Memorials in Mrs. Fellows' name may be made to Grinnell College or the United Church of Christ — Congregational, and left at the funeral home.

The daughter of William Anson and Minnie Frances Wilbur Neel, she was born Dec. 28, 1892, at Kamrar. She attended school at Webster City, graduating from high school there in 1909, and from Grinnell College in 1914.

She was married to L.E.

number of years. Dr. Fellows died in 1948, and Mrs. Fellows came to Grinnell in 1950.

She was a member of the United Church of Christ — Congregational, serving as a trustee of the Iowa Conference of Congregational Christian Churches and as president of the Iowa Fellowship of Congregational Christian Women.

From 1952 to 1954, she was active in the formation of the Mayflower Home, which she later served as a trustee. She had also been an assistant to the director of the home in the 1950s and had assisted the home's founder, Dr. Royal J. Montgomery, in raising funds. She was also a member of Chapter B.M. of the P.E.O.

Mrs. Fellows is survived by two daughters, Jean DeBartolo of Newtown Square, Pa., and Beth Green of St. Louis, Mo.; six grandchildren, six great-grandchildren; and three sisters and one brother, Lila Hill of Stanhope, Geneva Nickerson of Dade City, Fla., Dorothy Gleason of Gilmore Cilty and Wilmer Neel of Humboldt.

She was preceded in death by her husband, her parents and one brother, Kenneth Neel.
